LfV Lnd Hesse

1. As of 31 March 1959, Erich WIEGAND..., a counterespionage agent of the LfV office Kassel, is no longer in the employ of the LfV. Although WIEGAND was a member of the LfV, his salary was paid from BfV funds because the LfV table of organization did not provide for a counterespionage agent at Kassel. He served the LfV without official special agent status and had no rank in the organization. WIEGAND reportedly severed his relations with both the BfV and LfV.

During World War II WIEGAND was a member of the Gestapo, with rank equivalent to that of Captain. He served a tour of duty in France. It is believed that WIEGAND's dismissal was prompted by recent articles in West German publications which criticized the BfV because of the number of former Gestapo and SS members now within the LfV organization.

... It was reported that after WIEGAND severed his relations with the BfV and LfV he began employment with the BND at Frankfurt, where he was to receive a two-week orientation prior to receiving his assignment. This assignment was reportedly not to be in Lnd Hesse.
